6.2. Eligibility for Educational Assistance. Entitlement for educational assistance does not automatically qualify an individual to be provided educational assistance. An individual who is entitled to educational assistance may not be provided educational assistance until the individual has completed the initial period of active duty for training required of the member as defined in enclosure 2. Individuals enlisted in advanced pay grade (APG) or civilian acquired skills (CAS) programs, are considered to have completed IADT for the purposes of eligibility for educational assistance when they have completed the basic military training prescribed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned for their enlistment program.

6.3. Benefit.

6.3.1. Educational assistance may be provided for the pursuit of any program of education that is an approved program of education for purposes of Chapter 30 of 38 U.S.C. (reference (f)) other than a program of education in a course of instruction beyond the baccalaureate degree level. To be eligible for educational assistance under the vocational and/or technical programs, enlistment, reenlistment, extension, or agreement to serve must be on, or after, October 1, 1990.

6.3.2. Educational assistance is authorized for eligible individuals for pursuit of an approved program of undergraduate education or vocational training at the rate of 170 dollars each month for participating in a full-time program of education, 128 dollars each month for participating in a three-quarter-time program of education, 85 dollars each month for participating in a half-time program of education, and 43 dollars for each month of less than half-time participation. No payment may be made to a person for less than half-time pursuit of a program of entitlement, if tuition assistance is otherwise available to the person for such pursuit from the Secretary of the Military Department concerned.

6.4. Bar to Duplication of Educational Assistance. A member of the Selected Reserve, who is eligible for benefits under this program cannot use the same period of service to establish eligibility under the program established in Chapter 30 of 38 U.S.C. (reference (f)). The member must elect which program to which the Reserve service applies. This election is irrevocable. A member may be eligible under both Chapter 106 of reference (c) and Chapter 30 of reference (f), if the eligibility is based on separate periods of service. The member cannot receive concurrent benefits, but must elect the program under which the member shall receive educational assistance, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs. As determined by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs, the aggregate period for which any person may receive assistance under two or more provisions of law administered by VA is 48 months (or the part-time equivalent thereof).

6.5. Enrollment. A member of the Selected Reserve who has satisfied the criteria in subsection 6.1., above, and has been issued a DD Form 2384 or 2384-1, "Notice of Basic Eligibility (NOBE)" is enrolled in the "Montgomery GI Bill" for the Selected Reserve and may apply for educational assistance benefits to the VA.

The original DD Form 2384 or 2384-1 shall become a permanent part of the Service member's official military record. Instructions for completing DD Form 2384-1 are in enclosure 3. Only one DD Form 2384 or 2384-1 shall be issued to each entitled member. A corrected copy may be issued to correct an erroneous date of basic eligibility. A corrected DD Form 2384 or 2384-1 shall be clearly marked "CORRECTED COPY." Sample DD Forms 2384 and 2384-1 are in enclosure 3. The statement of understanding may become part of the enlistment or reenlistment contract or the agreement to serve in the Selected Reserve and shall be part of the member's official record of service. Statements of understanding shall not constitute evidence of eligibility for receipt of Selected Reserve educational assistance benefits.

6.8. The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). Procedures established by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs under which members of the Selected Reserve may apply for benefits under this program, are in enclosure 5. Individual members enrolled in a program must apply to the Secretary of Veterans Affairs for educational assistance.

6.9.1. Except as in paragraph 6.9.2., below, a member's entitlement and eligibility to receive educational assistance shall expire:

6.9.1.2. On the date the member is transferred from the Selected Reserve or discharged (unless discharged due to a disability, subsection 6.9.2., below, which was incurred after the date of eligibility), whichever occurs first.

6.9.2. Under the following circumstances, entitlement may be continued in accordance with Section 1431(d) of 38 U.S.C. (reference (f)) (as applied to the Selected Reserve, by Section 2133(b)(3) of Chapter 106 of 10 U.S.C. (reference (c))).

6.9.2.1. Members who are prevented from pursuing a program using the assistance authorized by subsection 6.3., above, because of a physical or mental disability incurred in or aggravated by service in the Selected Reserve, if the disability is not the result of the member's own willful misconduct. The member must apply to the Secretary of Veterans Affairs for an extension of the 10-year period within 1 year after the last day of the 10-year period or the last day of the disability, whichever is later, to preserve eligibility.

6.9.2.2. Members who are already enrolled in an educational institution when the period of entitlement expires. If the member is enrolled in an institution operated regularly on a quarter or semester basis and the period of entitlement expires during a quarter or semester, the benefit period shall be extended to the end of that quarter or semester. 6.9.2.3. Members separated from the Selected Reserve because of a disability, which was not the result of the individual's own willful misconduct, shall retain eligibility through the original 10-year delimiting date.

6.11. Failure to Participate Satisfactorily in Required Training. Members of the Selected Reserve, who receive educational assistance under Chapter 106 of 10 U.S.C. (reference (c)) and whose assistance is terminated because they fail to participate satisfactorily in required training may be:

6.11.1. Ordered to active duty involuntarily for up to 2 years or the period of obligated Selected Reserve service remaining under the member's Selected Reserve service agreement, whichever is less; or,

6.11.2. Required to refund to the United States an amount determined in accordance with the formula in Section 2135 of reference (c) and outlined below. Any such refund made by a member shall not affect the period of obligation of such member to serve in the Selected Reserve. The amount of the refund shall be equal to the product of:

6.12. Restoration of Eligibility. Except as in subsection 6.9., above, eligibility for assistance is terminated when a member separates from the Selected Reserve. Members who separate from the Selected Reserve for valid reasons, in accordance with applicable military regulations, following a period of satisfactory service, may regain eligibility for educational assistance, if:

6.12.1. Reaffiliation with the Selected Reserve occurs within 1 year, or within 3 years, in cases involving a religious missionary obligation, or in cases of members who have served on active duty in the AGR or TAR programs or with specific approval of the Secretary concerned; and

6.12.2. Members are otherwise eligible for educational assistance and have not received the maximum assistance available. When reaffiliation occurs, the member's eligibility for benefits shall be adjusted by the amount previously awarded, in accordance with VA regulations. The period of Selected Reserve service required of a member in such cases shall be not less than the difference between the previous period of satisfactory Selected Reserve service performed and 6 years. The Reserve component shall report the original eligibility date listed on the DD Form 2384 or 2384-1 from the member's official military records. The amount to be transferred to the Fund is determined by taking the per capita cost multiplied by the number of National Guard and Reserve members who sign 6-year contracts for service in the Selected Reserve during the previous month. A per capita cost payment is required when an individual not currently or formerly entitled to educational assistance, under Chapter 106 of 10 U.S.C (reference (c)), either:
